Subject: Staff Delegation to New York City

Dear FFPF Alumni,

For the fourth year in a row we are partnering with the Department of Homeland Security for a Staff Delegation to New York City. The trip will be focused on the state of homeland security, seventeen years after 9/11. Field visits will include visits to critical infrastructure locations, and meetings with those tasked with protecting those resources – the New York Police Department, Transportation Security Administration, US Coast Guard and Customs Border Protection. In previous years we have visited the 9/11 Memorial Museum, New York Stock Exchange, Penn Station, Port of Newark, NYC Harbor and JFK Airport. We are putting together an itinerary that matches these past trips.

The trip will be held from May 29, 2018 to June 1, 2018. If you are interested in attending, please email congressionalrelations@wilsoncenter.org with the name of your office and your position title by Friday March 16. This is usually a very popular trip, so we will alert final attendees next week. We plan to have the itinerary finalized in a few weeks. This trip is funded by the Carnegie Corporation of New York and organized by the Wilson Center. We will have your ethics forms ready to be submitted prior to the 30 day deadline for the Ethics Committees.

Thank you,
Paige

13. Briefly describe the stated mission of each sponsor and how the purpose of the trip relates to that mission:

The Wilson Foreign Policy Fellowship Program aims to educate Congressional staffers on foreign policy issues critical to U.S. national security, as well as to foster bipartisan working relationships. The trip supplements the work of the program's six-week seminar series, providing fellows with an opportunity to gain first-hand understanding of some of the policy challenges and opportunities discussed in the seminars. The focus for this trip is the state of homeland security, sixteen years after 9/11. Field visits will include meetings with critical infrastructure teams, NYPD, TSA, CBP, USCG, inter alia.

The Carnegie Corporation supports the Wilson Foreign Policy Fellowship Program with a grant, one of several Corporation grants aimed at educating Congressional staffers. The Carnegie Corporation shares the Wilson Center's interest in fostering bipartisanship in Congress, as well as in educating lawmakers on critical foreign policy issues.

14. Briefly describe each sponsor's prior history of sponsoring congressional trips:

The Woodrow Wilson Center has organized multiple prior congressional trips: a staff delegation for fellowship alumni to Mexico, focusing on border security and the U.S.-Mexico bilateral relationship; a staff trip to Canada focusing on US-Canadian relations, security, trade and natural resources; three staff trips to New York City focusing on homeland security, a staff trip to Colombia to focus on the FARC negotiations, a staff trip to Ireland focusing on international cybersecurity policies; and a staff trip to Europe (Paris, Brussels and Berlin) to focus on the European legislative process, NATO and partner delegations. The Wilson Center also sponsored multiple congressional trips through its Wilson Center on the Hill (WCOH) Program, which ended in December 2011. WCOH was a nonpartisan forum that focused on current issues related to international trade and security, sustainable development, and globalization. In its three years of existence, WCOH led two Member trips and two staff trips.

15. Briefly describe the educational activities performed by each sponsor (other than sponsoring congressional trips):

The Wilson Center is the official memorial to President Woodrow Wilson. In addition to carrying out public meetings and events, the Center hosts preeminent scholars and experts from around the globe who are researching topics of national and international relevance. The Center also welcomes school groups (both high school and college students) from all over the United States and the world to explore the Wilson Center and its Presidential Memorial Exhibition and Learning Center. A list of recent programs can be found on the Center's website at www.wilsoncenter.org.

18. Reason for selecting the location of the event or trip.

New York City is home to significant sites and facilities illustrating key challenges in securing the homeland (Ground Zero, airports and ports, and others), and sits at the nexus of major federal, state, and local law enforcement efforts. No other destination has the same density of relevant expertise and homeland security infrastructure.
